

PUBLIC NOTICE

(NBAA) THE NATIONAL BOARD OF ACCOUNTANTS AND AUDITORS TANZANIA

INVITATION FOR PRE-BUDGET PROPOSALS FROM THE ACCOUNTANCY PROFESSION STAKEHOLDERS FOR THE YEAR 2018/2019

The Accountancy Profession is one of the stakeholders that for many years had been providing its pre-budget proposals to the Government of the United Republic of Tanzania through the National Board of Accountants and Auditors (NBAA).

The main objective of year 2018/2019 pre-budget proposals is to highlight areas of improvement that could be considered by the Government in the preparation of the next national budget with the purposes of increasing government revenue, developing industrial economy and improve the standards of living of its citizens.

With this public notice all accountancy profession stakeholders are invited to submit their proposals which will be consolidated and submitted by NBAA to the Ministry of Finance and Planning in early December 2017 for further deliberations. Proposals submitted should be supported with detailed reasons, benchmarking with other countries, if any, and recommendations for easy understanding and consideration during the deliberations.

The deadline for receiving stakeholders' proposals is on Thursday, 31st August, 2017 at 16:00hours.

Please use emails info@nbaa.go.tz and saimon.kiondo@nbaa.go.tz to send your proposals to NBAA.
